GUNSMITHING POLICIES AND RELEASE OF LIABILITIES

No completion date can or will be given on any project. However, upon request, an approximation of the estimated time to completion may be given at the discretion of Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing. This estimated time to completion is non-binding and may change at any time due to extenuating factors without any notification to the customer. Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing reserves the right to process and complete work orders in whatever order it sees fit solely based on its own discretion. Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing reserves the right to accept or reject any work order.

Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing will provide periodic updates on your project upon request. The customer may inquire as to the status of the work order by email at any time, patriot1_9@patriot19gunsmithing.com. The customer may at any time request the work order be returned prior to completion. Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing will assess the proper fee for the work already performed based on Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing discretion and the rates and terms agreed upon previously by Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing and the customer. Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing reserves the right to retain possession of the work order until it has been fully compensated for the work, services, and parts it has provided.

The Customer acknowledges that they have voluntarily requested Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing to perform activities which may include, and are not limited to, modifications and alterations to a firearm which may affect various safety systems. The customer is aware that alterations and modifications of guns may be hazardous. The customer is voluntarily requesting that these activities take place with full knowledge of the dangers involved which may include death, dismemberment, or other injuries. The customers hereby agree to accept any and all risks and verify this statement by placing this work order. The customer releases Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing from any and all liability for any alterations or modifications that were made at the customer's request.

The customer is informed, realize, and understand that any alterations which I have requested to be made to my firearm, pursuant to the Work Order, may release the Manufacturer from any warranty, or liability for any accident should occur.

The customer is informed, accepts, and understands by reading and signing this work order, that by requesting that these changes occur, the customer is also releasing the gunsmith; both individually and Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing, from any liability should any accident occur because of the work performed by the gunsmith.

Unless other arrangements are made, in writing, any jobs left in the shop for more than 60 days after being phoned or emailed notification of job completion and request for payment of balance will be considered abandoned and may be sold to cover expenses.

Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing takes all precautions to protect and preserve all firearm finishes and parts, but due to the nature of some work orders, firearms or parts, may be placed in vices, clamped, heated, drilled on, grinded, sanded, removal of material, prided, pressed, exposed to chemicals, or other activities that may inadvertently affect its finishes, cause scratches, dimple the metal, or smudge. Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing and its gunsmiths will not be responsible for these changes due to the working requirements and the priority to perform the work order. If the work requested by the customer has effects on parts or finishes, the work to correct the finishes will be at an extra cost for the customer. Patriot 1:9 Gunsmithing will not discount, return, or replace parts that had to undergo any like activities to be installed. (ie.- sight press marks on sights).

I HAVE READ THIS DOCUMENT AND UNDERSTAND IT FULLY. I FURTHER UNDERSTAND THAT BY SIGNING THIS RELEASE, I VOLUNTARY SURRENDER CERTAIN LEGAL RIGHTS.
